11:30-12:00	LUNCH	LUNCH	LUNCH	Early Release
12:00-2:51	Academic Support	Academic Support	Academic Support	Early Release

NOTES:

- Food will be available in the cafeteria before school, during break and during lunch
- Students are expected to remain in their exam room for the entire exam period.
- Students are expected to attend all instructional blocks.
- Some classes may not have a traditional exam which is fine; the expectation is that students will be engaged in culminating experience. This may include a Socratic Seminar, a critique, a group discussion, a celebration of learning, a reflective activity, or an exploration designed to allow students to bring all their knowledge together to solve a challenged (real or imagined).
- Activities should be designed for the entire 90-minute periods.
- Students are encouraged, but not required, to remain after their exam periods.
- Students should make plans ahead of time with their teachers if they are coming for academic support.
- Please note: the regular bus schedule will be in effect on these exam days.
- The cafeteria and library will open during all blocks to be used as study areas for students.
- Please note that Thursday, June 16th is an Early Release Day; bus will arrive for an 11:30 pickup

GOOD LUCK!
